Membership Classification

Active Members: Firms engaged in transactions involving seed research, development, growing or selling for planting purposes and technology delivered in or on the seed, which in these transactions acts as principals to take title to the same.

Dues are based on the sales of planting for the previous year, including the value of technology delivered on the seed, (either sold in the U.S. or exported), and royalties.

Associate Members: Firms marketing products other than seed or firms proving services for use in agriculture or horticulture.

Dues are based on annual sales for products or services rendered to the seed industry.
